A LETTER FROM A READER

Dear Sir,

Your magazine is incredible! Whenever I have nothing to do that's the first thing I think of. Your magazine gives me joy. Keep up the amazing work with your magazine. I would recommend starting to do news reports. Then we don't need to go to the news channel ever again.

Your devoted reader,
Jason.

Dear Devoted Reader,

Thanks for liking my magazine and I love the advice about the news report. We need to start that soon. Thanks for the love.

Sincerely,
Jake Klee

Arsenal Poem

I press deploy and the first thing I see is my victory,
but first gotta keep my eyes on the enemies.
I'm shooting them from far away.
They don't even begin to think of me.
They're dropping as my points are rising.
They don't even know what's gonna happen,
Cuz the game would be over before you know it.
Since I have the speed and movement
Of something they haven't ever seen before.
I'm winning left and right.

Then I have an instinct to slam my desk,
but I hold it back to continue playing.
Of course they're on their mom's I-pod
just lagging and having over sized hit boxes.
I don't even know the way,
I don't know the way
the only way I know is to win and when I win. They will have to try again, but one time I will see my self in a different server.
From the raging after that we start it over.

When you're trying to become a gamer don't just spend all your money on physical gaming tools use that money towards earning money. Make gaming work for you. As your money grows then slowly invest in better gaming tools. Always remember to put a little extra towards earning more as well.

Tide Master By Jake Klee

The Florida born Tide Master, with his sharp spear, metal boots, covered in a green iron suit and fin topped helmet, is an ocean controlling human. The weight of his spear forces his body to lean forward, but don't take that as a sign of weakness. Just take a look into his piercing red eyes, it feels like he is looking through your soul. Even though he looks evil he has a good heart so you can trust him for who he is. Let's shed some light on who he is and what he can do.

At the young age of 11 the Tide master's world was crushed when he was left behind by his family. He struggled to get back on his feet with no parents to guide him. At times he thought he would fail, but he survived. He's a warrior. He built his base and everything around him with his own bare hands. Even inventing his own weapons and special powers. He can control the ocean with his mind by turning the waves into weapons. The waves act as giant hands. He is even able to walk on water like a moving walkway at the airport. The Tide master has an energy ball he can summon with his hands to dispense and attack at villains. The spear he invented can fire lasers at anyone or anything and vaporize them. His powers are incredibly dangerous. The Tide Master had no help rising from the ashes and vowed to always help others. So, ever since he created his powers he's been giving people copies of this creation, but only if they are worthy. This warrior knows the value of needing training to be the best, which is why he created training areas for use of his power.

When you have trained enough you develop a level of strength that allows you to earn your own powers. He is a superhero that protects the city that he loves. He will always be loyal to his fellow citizens and he will never let you down.

Now you know that the Tide Master came from devastating beginnings. He rose above and proved that he was a survivor. A true warrior, he is powerful, but is a good loving person who will protect earth and everyone on it.

Impress Stalkers

Curb Appeal in Bloxburg

Living in a mansion sounds amazing, but not everyone has the financial resources to get a mansion. This is why it's fun to head to "Roblox" and play "Welcome to Bloxburg". Where you get to design a mansion of your dreams with an endless supply of construction options including furniture and decorations. My focus today will be on curb appeal. Specifically, the driveway entrance, which everyone can see from the street. If your driveway doesn't scream mansion than I have some quick tips for you.

Painting Menu

Drive way

Use the manual floor build for your driveway. This allows you to get creative with shape and turns in the driveway. Start out with a straight driveway, then add a half circle near the house. Make the garage sizes appropriate. Go to build and select the category labeled doors. At the bottom of this list you will find the garage doors. Select a door for your small vehicles and select one for your big vehicles. After you make the driveway and the garage then add fences to your driveway so you don't drive off of it onto your lawn. If you wanted to, you can even add your front door between the garage doors, in the middle of the half circle with a walkway up to the front door. You can even add a gated entrance to the driveway. Look out stalkers..

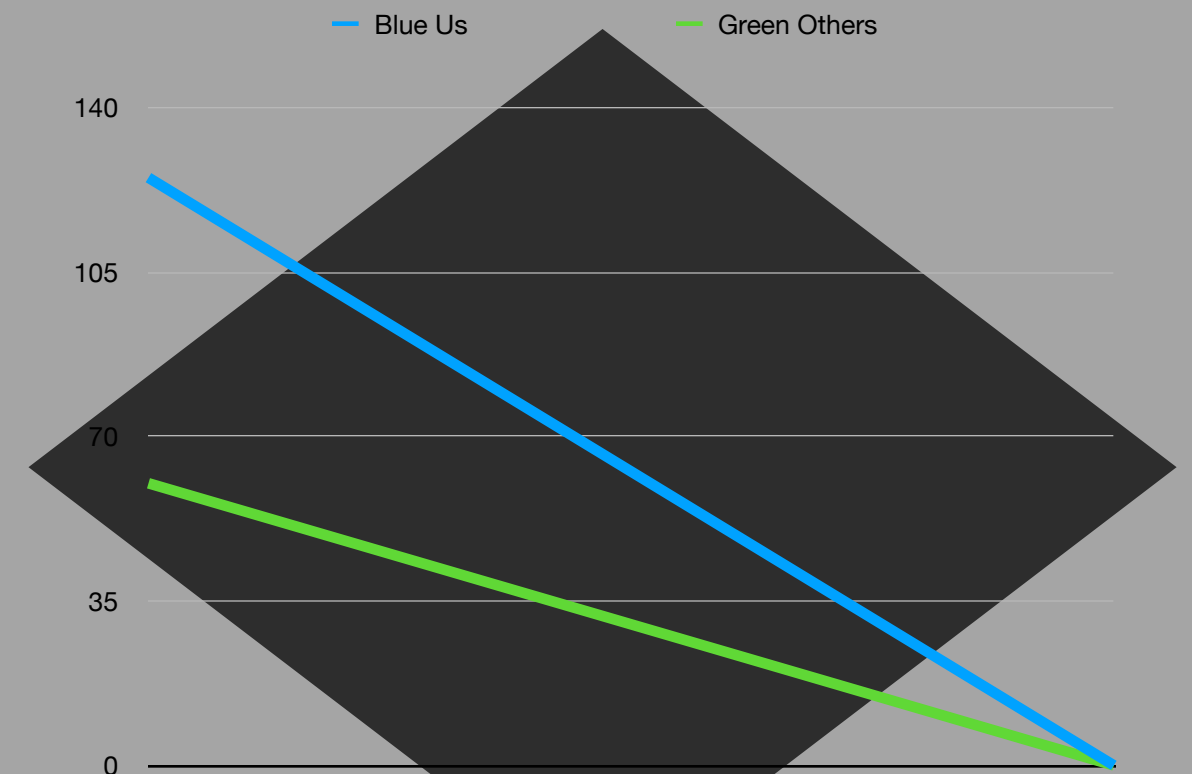

There you have it, adding curb appeal to your mansion driveway. I'd love to see some of your elaborate driveways and if you have tips to add to this please below.. Happy Bloxburging.

Secret Chocolate Chip Cookies

Next time you get ready for a marathon gaming session why not make yourself a healthy treat first. Okay, Maybe not totally healthy, but they have eggs and oatmeal in them. A few minutes to mix together and 11 minutes in the oven and ta da, your snack is ready. This recipe will make about 3 dozen cookies, perfect to keep fueled in the gaming zone. Make sure you preheat the oven so its ready for baking as soon as the dough is mixed. You don't want to waste precious minutes away from the console.

Ingredients:

1/2 c rolled oats , regular or quick
 2 1/4 all-purpose flour
 1 1/2 t baking soda
 1/2 t salt
 1/4 t cinnamon
 1 c (2 sticks) butter softened (lower fat use 1 stick and 2T)
 3/4 c firmly packed brown sugar
 3/4 c granulated sugar
 2 t vanilla extract
 1 t lemon juice
 2 eggs

Preheat oven to 350 F. Place rolled oats in a blender or food processor and process until finely ground. Combine ground oats, flour, baking soda, salt, and cinnamon in a mixing bowl.

In another bowl cream butter, sugars, vanilla, and lemon juice together using an electric mixer. Add eggs and beat until fluffy.

Stir the flour mixture into egg mixture, blending well. Add chocolate chips to the dough and mix well. Use 2 tablespoon silverware to scoop dough and put onto a cookie sheet or an ice cream scoop place balls 2 1/2 inches apart on baking sheet.

Bake to 11 mins, varies by oven you may need to go longer or shorter. Watch your first batch. when cookies are a light yo golden brown transfer the cookies onto the cooling rack. You should get about 3 dozen cookies depending on the size you make them.

Rolled oats are important in this recipe so don't skip. Make sure you blend in food processor or the cookies will fall apart with big oat pieces. When your stirring your dry ingredients slowly stir the dry stuff so it doesn't pOoF into your face. Make sure to blend all wet well before adding the eggs so everything is combined all the way. Run that blender beaters up the sides of the bowl and bottom edges to get all ingredients mixed together. When you're stirring the dry stuff into the wet go slowly. Add a little at a time so the dry stuff so doesn't poof in your face. Seems to be a common problem with baking. When your stirring make sure to be slow then when it's almost all mixed up you can beat faster. Again, run the beater up the sides and along the bottom of the bowl to get all dry mixed in well. I added two cups of chocolate chips instead of 3 cups and it was enough. Thankfully! I was a little short on how many chocolate chips I had left in my pantry. Make sure you mix the chocolate chips in good so you get a bite of chocolate in every bite. Either eat them right away or store them in a sealed container to keep them soft and chewy for later snacking. I can't take the credit for these beauties, I found the recipe somewhere and have since lost the originator. So cheers and a big thank you to the author of this recipe. Now go enjoy your delicious cookies, I know I will.

Call of duty Poem

By Jake Klee

When you're in the middle of the companion it's heartbreaking when you see so many lives Drop.
you can't stand to watch but you keep fighting for your country.
The fire.
The explosions.
It's too much for you, I have to leave.
I can't.
you need to stay to protect others if I don't I might die.
I will never run I will always protect if my life depends on it.
I will use it in the best way possible.
I will not let them win the war.
if they do then what was the point.
I will never stop protecting this Country.
I will win.
this is a high-class army we have the best weapons and we will protect our country are lives depend on it.

Battle Field

Back again in the new round again.
 There's real physics best I've ever seen.
 That's not all we got lots to come and there is definitely more where that came from.
 Like spawn points and crouch-slides
 best time of my life
 Keeping it real such as obeying the laws of gravity and velocity obviously.
 The rounds are quick when I have my quick thinking moving fast first-person shooting game
 not much to do, but wrecked in a cool way
 They got,
 Team Death Match,
 King of the Hill,
 and Area Domination,
 with Capture the Flag.
 You can squad deploy on the phantoms or ghosts if you're on their team
 they have lots a battle fields with different places to fight
 and fight until the game is done.

Dropping Popping

I'm deployed moving outta spawn I can't wait to see my first enemy and watch them fall from my firepower.
 They won't want to mess with me
 so i'll walk to each spawn getting kill after kill. They can't even see me they only die and see me from a third person view.

I'm dropping popping off without
 them seeing me they wanna be a wanna be. They ain't following the greatness of power in me and they won't ever see the power that I have
 in a way of my prophecy.
 It's my time to shine then I shine
 they won't be able to see cuz of the brightness in my future. I know I'm going to win, I have it in the bag. I see my points rising, I'm getting closer and closer to the golden knife. I'm at the golden gun after this shot I'm going to win just need a backstab to finish it.

I'm dropping popping off without
 them seeing me they wanna be a
 wanna be they ain't following the
 greatness of power in me and they
 won't ever see the power that I have
 in a way of my prophecy.
